10/11/00	A00-07-034	Red and White Ferries, Inc., to temporarily suspend scheduled weekday vessel common carrier service between Richmond and San Francisco

Summary: On October 10, 2000, Kristel L. Frank, Chair of the Friends of the Richmond Ferry ("the Friends") met with Jonathan Lakritz, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. Also present was William Flenniken, attorney for the Friends. Frank explained that the Friends has two main issues with Red & White Ferries, Inc.'s request to suspend service. First, Red & White Ferries, Inc. ("R&W") has not fulfilled its obligation to promote and support the service. Second, the Friends dispute R&W's financial representations. Frank emphasized that if R&W were allowed to cease operations while these issues were pending, it would irreparably harm the ferry service. Frank urged the Commission to read the protest filed by the Friends and to carefully examine the data request responses provided by R&W. Flenniken stated that if the Richmond ferry is temporarily suspended pending the outcome of the presently set hearings before ALJ Rosenthal, the result of the Friends efforts to build ridership will be lost because former riders will have become accustomed to other forms of transportation. Flenniken also stated that if the Friends prevail, there will be substantial marketing costs involved to begin to rebuild the lost ridership, which the Friends will request that R&W be ordered to pay. Flenniken estimated that the cost of restarting the service may equal or exceed any savings from a temporary suspension.

Summary: On October 10, 2000, Kristel L. Frank, Chair of the Friends of the Richmond Ferry ("the Friends") met with Laura Krannawitter, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, in San Francisco. Also present were Lynn McGhee, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, and William Flenniken, attorney for the Friends. Frank explained that the Friends has two main issues with Red & White Ferries, Inc.'s request to suspend service. First, Red & White Ferries, Inc. ("R&W") has not fulfilled its obligation to promote and support the service. Second, the Friends dispute R&W's financial representations. Frank emphasized that if R&W were allowed to cease operations while these issues were pending, it would irreparably harm the ferry service. Frank urged the Commission to read the protest filed by the Friends and to carefully examine the data request responses provided by R&W. Flenniken stated that the information requested by Cmmr. Bilas would show that R&W had no independent books of account apart from Fisherman's Wharf Bay Cruise Corporation and that R&W's understanding of the initial costs to be funded by Fisherman's Wharf Bay Cruise Corporation must be viewed in light of its management's prior experience with the Vallejo ferry, which service it provided for a period of time.

On October 2, 2000, Rick Counihan of GreenMountain.com, a member of the Alliance for Retail Markets (ARM), participated in an all-party meeting with Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. Also present were: Mona Petrochko of Enron and Peter Bray of The New Power Company, members of, and Alan Comnes of MRW & Associates, advisor to, ARM; and other participants as indicated on the attached attendance list. Mona Petrochko urged the Commission to adopt the Neepre revised alternate proposed decision (RAPD), with modifications, presented in ARM's comments. Petrochko said that the RAPD is consistent with the direction given by the Commission in the 1998 rate adjustment proceeding decision. Petrochko also indicated that the energy equivalent corollary to the Power Exchange Credit for the natural gas business, brokerage fee, would range between 26 and 38 cents per MWh. Petrochko stated that the RAPD falls within that comparable range. Comnes provided rebuttal to the criticisms of ARM's study on technical matters. Bray stated that The New Power Company is anxiously watching the Commission's decision as an important factor as to whether the company will enter the California market.
